

Cause Marketing Guidelines

Thank you for your interest in supporting the American Brain Tumor Association through our cause marketing program. We look forward to a mutually beneficial relationship. Below are the program guidelines for your review. If acceptable, please complete the cause marketing application and return to Kitty Snow at ksnow@abta.org or 773-577-8766.

In connection with the ABTA cause marketing program, we ask that partners publish the ABTA's website (www.abta.org) on all partner promotions, events, marketing packaging and related advertising materials.

We Will:

- Authorize the use of ABTA's name and logo to promote the campaign.
- Provide information about brain tumors and our organization. We will also provide ABTA promotional items upon request.
- Include the campaign and the company's logo on the cause marketing page of abta.org.
- Promote our cause marketing program through various platforms including, but not limited to, the ABTA website, social media and newsletters, and at our events and conferences.
- Monitor the campaign to ensure it is conducted in a professional manner benefiting the parties' respective public images.

We Will Not:

- Allow any promotional materials that do not clearly disclose the specific percentage or amount of proceeds from product being donated to the organization.*
- Support fundraisers that involve controversial subject matter that can be contrary to our mission.
- Sell, promote, endorse or distribute any outside business or product in any fashion.
- Share our mailing list of donors.
- Approve campaigns that do not compliment the mission and core values of the ABTA.
- Provide storage space for your products at our office.

*All cause marketing agreements must follow the IRS guidelines and the Better Business Bureau's Wise Giving Alliance standards. Participating businesses must provide full disclosure to the consumer regarding the benefit to the ABTA when donations are raised through a consumer purchase on all packaging, advertising and promotional materials in clear, unambiguous terms.
